THE HOME PAPER

SAY!

(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

The exchange season on Christmas gifts is now on in full blast. I was in one of the local stores yesterday when a fellow I know brought in a quilted lounge robe—whatever that is—and started negotiations to exchange it for underwear and socks. He said that as far as he was concerned he had no more use for a quilted lounge robe than an aviator's suit. When the merchant explained to him that the garment was intended for use in lounging in his home in the evening he responded that when he got home at night he always went to bed. That clinched the argument.

I stayed up so late last night listening in on the radio I got Chili.

Well, not to be out done by Mr. Ford, Mr. Chevrolet has announced a new automobile which he designates as "The Most Beautiful automobile ever built by Chevrolet." January 1 is the date set for the showing of the new "light harness" car.

I received a letter this morning that runs—and I sure mean "runs"—something like this: "I look forward to your 'Say' column every day and if well wishes and congratulations from a subscriber means anything to you, be sure that you have them."

And then I stuck out my chest, for these well wishes and congratulations mean much to me. Thanks subscriber.

The weather—Quite changeable, thank you.

Another girl has flown away
To conquer the Atlantic
But where she went, nobody knows.
Now this is quite authentic.

Did you ever notice how easy and with how little timidity they come in January 1 and hand you a statement of your account. They do not seem to have a bit of hesitancy or be the least abashed about it.

Several have attempted to steal "Lindy's" thunder but he seems to be "thunder proof."

The warmer weather at least relieves the difficulty in getting ones' automobile started.

Bill Morgan, arrested several times recently on liquor charges, pulled a "Remus" on Mayor McGaughey, when arraigned on a bootlegging charge. When the affidavit charging him with violating some phase of the liquor law, was read by the prosecuting attorney, Morgan pleaded not guilty and then assuming a most professional air moved that the affidavit be quashed on the grounds that it was sworn to by a man who was under the influence of intoxicating liquor. For some unexplainable reason the Mayor refused to quash the affidavit and so "Attorney" Morgan must face trial. Whether he will conduct his own defense or not he has not announced.

I have the funniest boy you ever saw. I bought him a gun for Christmas and now he wants to shoot it.

The open season on calendars is here. There are little ones, medium sized ones and large ones; pretty ones, fancy ones and ugly ones.

ATTENTION STONE QUARRY MEN:—Last evening at about 6 o'clock a large piece of plastering fell off a kitchen ceiling. If any one of you believe that heavy blasting at your quarry was responsible for this disaster, I wish that you would please send a plasterer and materials to my home, 206 West Poplar street, and have the damage repaired. I did not hear any blast at the time the ceiling let loose but I do not desire to take away from you the opportunity to repair the ceiling if you have the least belief that your blasting was responsible. In case you desire to repair the damage I assure you your men will be kindly received and that there will be no harsh words. In case each of the three quarries send men to do the repair work, I would suggest that they draw straws to see which receives the honor of making the repair. Thanks, boys!

Mrs. James Birt and two children, north Madison street, who have been visiting relatives near Somerset, Ky., returned home Tuesday evening.

MARY GARDEN TO SING AT CAPITAL CITY

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 28.—(INS)—Mary Garden, internationally known opera singer, has been engaged for a benefit concert at the Murat theater here the night of January 25, by the Delta Gamma sorority chapter at Butler university.

The concert will benefit the building fund of the sorority.

At the time of her appearance here, Miss Garden will have sung her American premiere in "Sappho," the third new opera she has given in two seasons.

CITY TAKES STEPS TO BUY NEW FIRE TRUCK

COUNCIL MEMBERS VOTE UNANIMOUSLY TO ISSUE BONDS IN AMOUNT OF $10,000 FOR NEW EQUIPMENT—APPARATUS MAY COST LESS

City council members at their regular meeting Tuesday night voted unanimously to publish a determination to issue bonds in the amount of $10,000 for the purchase of a new city fire truck and pumper.

Councilman Earl Harris, a member of the fire committee, who has been active in an effort to secure new fire fighting equipment for the city, introduced a determination to issue bonds for purchase of the new truck. The other council members gave unanimous approval to the document.

During the ensuing discussion it was pointed out that the present equipment was antiquated and totally inadequate for the needs of the city. Purchase of an additional fire truck has been urged since January, 1926, by the local Chamber of Commerce, but last night's action was the first actual step in this direction.

Cost of a new 600 gallon pumper such as is considered necessary for Greencastle would be in the neighborhood of $9,000, it was said by fire equipment company representatives, who were present at the meeting.

Because of the legal procedure which is necessary in issuing bonds it will be late next spring before the new equipment could be purchased and put into use. Notice of a determination to issue bonds for this purpose must be given and then remonstrances, if any, of taxpayers must be heard.

The determination to issue bonds in the amount of $10,000 does not necessarily mean the city will pay this much for a fire truck. The document is flexible and permits the council to spend less if possible, but not in excess of the $10,000 amount.

The present Seagrave truck with its 350 gallon pumper has been in service for twelve years. Its original cost was about $7,000 but cost of fire equipment since then has increased. The present truck needs servicing and a complete overhauling, it was said.

Present fire equipment is the only protection needs of the city it was said. In the event of two fires at the same time in widely separated parts of the city the firemen would be helpless. It was pointed out that other cities of Greencastle's size had two fire trucks and better equipment.

DEPAUW GRADUATE IS BROADCASTING SERMONS

The Greencastle friends of Joel M. Wareing are interested this week in listening in on WLW, Cincinnati, where he is broadcasting the morning devotions at 7 a. m. This is the third year that Mr. Wareing has broadcast these services. Mr. Wareing is a graduate of DePauw in the class of 1922, and has been pastor of the Linwood Methodist Church in Cincinnati for the past three years. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Taylor of this city, with whom his wife and son are spending the holidays.

APPROPRIATE $2,000 FOR RATE FIGHT

NO OBJECTIONS VOICED TO EMPLOYING EXPERT AID IN OPPOSING LOCAL UTILITY INTERESTS

COMMITTEE MEETING TONIGHT

Hearings Will Probably Be Held In January—Other Business Transacted

An appropriation of $2,000 for the employment of expert aid in the fight to prevent an increase in local water and telephone rates, was unanimously approved, and an appropriation ordinance for the $2,000 was unanimously carried, at the city council meeting Tuesday night.

A roll call of the city councilmen resulted in each member voting for the appropriation. Each said that taxpayers in his ward had expressed approval of the city's utility rates.

Further steps in the fight to oppose an increase in water and telephone rates in this city will be taken at a meeting of a committee this evening at which time expert aid in the way of an engineer, accountant and attorney will probably be employed. The $2,000 will be used solely in employing expert aid for the gathering of evidence to oppose the local utility interests. Hearing on the proposed increases will probably be held before a public service commission member in this city in January.

Opening of the proposed Elmer Chester York and others thoroughfare north on Spring avenue to Higert street was approved by the city council members, only Councilman Leslie Haymaker, opposing the opening of this new street.

Following this action the city council issued orders for a survey of the new street by the city engineer. Condemnation and other street opening proceedings will be taken later. The project will probably also be brought up at the next meeting of the county commissioners.

Councilman W. P. Sackett made a strong appeal for a reduction in the amount of insurance carried by local taxicab operators. Mr. Sackett said that the amounts now required under a city ordinance were exorbitant and unnecessary. He pointed out that the insurance he required in Bloomington, Crawfordsville and even Indianapolis were much lower than those in this city. Although Mr. Sackett said that the insurance was too great a burden for the local cab operators he failed to present any actual figures or other data to support his contention. As taxicab operators are required to secure new insurance and a license the first of the year Mr. Sackett's appeal came too late for any relief for local cab owners before 1929.

Walter Hess was given permission to build a new house and garage in Northwood and approval of the claim ordinance were other matters disposed of at the Tuesday night meeting.

MEXICAN DOCUMENT PROCURER ASSAILED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Miguel Avila, procurer of the Mexican documents published in Hearst newspapers, was described to the Senate investigation committee today as a "notorious purveyor of documents" by Frank Y. McLaughlin, civil engineer of the City of Mexico.

McLaughlin, who said he knew nothing of the papers purporting to show creation of a $1,215,000 fund for four United States senators, declared that Avila had peddled "twenty or thirty worthless documents" to him including one purporting to have come from the American Embassy.

Avila was missing today although he had been asked by Senator Reed (Republican, Pennsylvania), chairman of the committee, to be present. McLaughlin also made the request that Avila be present. He and Avila are on friendly terms so far as he knew, said McLaughlin, who told of making numerous loans to Avila.

Lengel, gray-haired ex-police chief of Canton, O., who was convicted as a member of the "ring" which engineered the assassination of Don Mellett, Canton newspaper publisher, today was assured as the Ohio Supreme Court overruled an appeal by the state for reversal of the Appellate court decree, ordering the trial.

Myron C. Taylor, who was elected chairman of the finance committee, is expected to direct the corporation's policies with assistance of Morgan and James A. Farrell, who becomes chief executive officer in addition to remaining as president.

LONE KILLER DECLARES HE WILL NOT FIGHT

LOCKED IN LOS ANGELES JAIL HICKMAN SAYS POSITIVELY HE WILL PLEAD GUILTY TO KIDNAPPING AND MURDER

CRINGES BEFORE CAPTORS

Sees No Need Of Counsel Other Than Services Of Public Defender Provided By State

By ARTHUR L. MAREK,

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 28.—The lone killer "Fox," caged and cringing at bay, will not fight back.

Locked inside the steel walls of his solitary cell in the Los Angeles county jail, William Edward Hickman says positively he will plead guilty to charges of kidnapping and murdering little Marion Parker.

His confession that he kidnapped the 12-year-old school girl, throttled her to death, butchered her and sold her mutilated body to her grief-stricken father for $1,500 stands, he says.

Hickman sees no need for counsel other than the services of the public defender and does not want the advice of Jerome Walsh, a Kansas City attorney, who is speeding west to defend him at the instance of the prisoner's mother.

"Even if that lawyer tells me to plead not guilty, I will refuse to do it," Hickman declared.

"I said I'm going to plead guilty and I mean it. The officers may have my story all down in writing anyway—and I signed it. I told everything I know. I can't see where that Kansas City lawyer will be much help now."

His keepers reported Hickman slept soundly through his first night in the Los Angeles County jail despite murmured threats of violence on the part of fellow prisoners who openly, and within earshot of Hickman, expressed their wrath because the ruthless killer had been harbored beneath the same roof.

Every precaution has been taken by chief jailer Frank Dewar to prevent a mutiny among the wrought up prisoners and special guards have been stationed at Hickman's cell to protect him from the fury of his jail mates.

Meanwhile, jailer Dewar has issued explicit orders that Hickman will not be permitted to receive any visitors.

Neither will maudlin sentiment be permitted to seep through Hickman's cell to create misplaced sympathy for the killer, Dewar is determined.

Letters, mostly from women offering to pray for Hickman, already have begun to pour into Dewar's office.

But all mail addressed to Hickman will be rigidly censored before it reaches his hands, his jailers say.

Hickman slept like a top throughout the night, the guards outside the cell reported early this morning. Hickman faces another ordeal today as district attorney Asa Keyes prepared to question him about the murder last September of an aged traveler whose bullet pierced body was found by the wayside near Cotton Wood Falls, Kansas.

The victim, about 75 years of age, has never been identified, although an automobile, believed to have been stolen from him, was found, stripped of its license plates, in Topeka, Kansas.

Since Hickman's pictures appeared in Kansas newspapers, a number of persons are reported to have identified the slayer of the Parker girl as having been seen with the old man a few days before his death.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Hutchinson of Chicago has wired authorities here asking that Hickman be questioned to learn what he knows, if anything about the murder in Kansas. Hickman was said to have been somewhere in the middlewest at the time.

MUST NOT DRINK FOR LENGTH OF TERM

BLUFFTON, Ind., Dec. 28.—(INS)—Judge A. W. Hamilton, of Wells circuit court, is making New Year resolutions for some of the defendants who come before him, with a good chance that the resolutions will be kept.

John Crosbie, brought before the jurist on liquor law violation charges, was fined $100 and given a six months prison farm sentence.

Judge Hamilton suspended the farm sentence on condition that Crosbie have nothing to do with liquor for the term of his sentence.

CALIFORNIA HAS SECOND KIDNAPING

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL IS PERMITTED TO RIDE AWAY WITH PAROLED CONVICT—LAST SEEN LATE SUNDAY

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 28.—(INS)—Missing from her home since last Sunday, when her mother, misled by a ruse, permitted her to ride away in a small automobile with Robert E. McClelland, paroled convict, search for Evelyn Smith, 11, assumed statewide proportions today police feared recurrence of a kidnapping mystery akin to the abduction and murder of Marion Parker, Los Angeles school girl, by William Edward Hickman.

Evelyn, one of ten children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, was allowed to leave her home with McClelland after the man had represented himself to be the son of a wealthy mother in Pasadena and had promised employment for the father and a home for the girl on the mother's estate. He left a check for $125 with Smith who is ill and out of work. The checks later proved worthless.

Pasadena authorities notified local police that the man's mother Mrs. C. M. Basere, a gardener's wife, denied that she had offered a home for the Smith girl and said that she had not seen her son for years.

The landlady in the rooming house where McClelland lived here informed authorities that her roomer had been reading the newspaper accounts of Hickman's exploits and had spoken to her of them frequently.

McClelland was paroled last October, after serving two years at Folsom prison on a forgery count.

GUN WOUND IN ARM RESULTS IN AMPUTATION

ACCIDENT WAS ON TUESDAY

Climbing Over Fence On Samuel Dickey Farm When Gun Explodes—Charge Penetrates Upper Arm

Frank Lancaster, age 16 years, son of John Lancaster, Madison township farmer, is in the County Hospital with his left arm amputated at the wrist, following an accident late Tuesday afternoon when a shot gun was discharged as the young man was climbing a fence.

The full charge of the shot gun shell struck the young man at the knuckles ranging up through the wrist, the wadding and leaden pellets lodging in the biceps of the upper left arm. His left side was burned by the discharge, so close was the young man to the gun.

Young Lancaster had been hunting and was returning to the home of his grandfather, Samuel Dickey, when the accident occurred. Leaning the gun against a fence without three hundred feet of the Dickey home he started to climb over. The discharge of the gun struck the curved arm just below the wrist, blowing the hand to shreds and penetrating his upper arm.

Dr. W. R. Hutcheson of Greencastle was called by the frantic family and he brought the young man to the County Hospital where he was assisted by Dr. W. M. McGaughey in amputating the arm just above the left wrist.

According to Dr. Hutcheson there is a possibility the arm may have to be amputated higher because of the fact that much of the lead entered the upper arm. Two blood vessels were removed from the upper arm. Unless the remaining vessels are sufficient to nourish the arm a second amputation will be necessary.

The young man was resting fairly comfortably Wednesday with the exception of a high fever. Tetanus toxin was administered Wednesday to prevent the development of blood poisoning. The young man is not strong, it was said, and the wound may prove very serious.

PASTOR KILLED WHILE HUNTING

BEDFORD, Ind., Dec. 27.—A. S. Leach, 55 years old, pastor of the Sec ond Methodist Church here and for many years a teacher in the county schools, was instantly killed west of the city at noon today when the shot gun he was carrying was accidentally discharged as he climbed over a fence. His father-in-law, D. I. Abbett, prominent farmer living west of the city, with whom the Rev. and Mrs. Leach had made their home since the death last summer of Mrs. Abbett, was the only witness to the accident. He had just called the Rev. Mr. Leach to dinner and started toward the house when he heard a shot and turned to see him fall to the ground with the charge through his heart.

Only members who carried membership certificates and showed dues paid in full were allowed to vote in the referendum.

CHICAGO GUNMEN INVADE SOCIETY IN DRESS SUITS

LEADERS OF GANGLAND, IN SPITE OF REPUTATIONS, ARE GENTLE MANLY—SCARFACE AL CAPONE IS A DISTINGUISHED LOOKING GENT IN HIS CLUB

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—What manner of persons are Chicago's gangsters?

And the answer is they are entirely absolutely contrary to any impression one may have gained from underworld motion pictures, stage plays and novels.

They are almost without exception quite gentlemanly in appearance, especially the leaders. They dress in good taste visit manicurists regularly and in a crowd would more than often be taken for successful business men, newspaper reporters, actors or automobile salesmen.

The chiefs of gangland maintain luxurious quarters, albeit gaudy, in the shadow of Chicago's gold coast—the home of the exclusive and wealthy. They have invaded many of the city's leading hotels and apartments and at night, spic and span in evening clothes, may be seen on the dance floors of the most fashionable cabarets and night clubs.

Two Social Sets
The gangmen have established two distinct social sets. One is made up entirely of their own members and their favorite women friends. The other is composed of the most successful of their number from a financial standpoint and their wives.

Very few of the gangster element acknowledge the nature of their business and their wives and sweethearts generally learn they lived outside the law when a machine-gun riddled body is carried home.

It is interesting that all gangsters are young and dark. They are inclined to the sleek type with sideburns, slick hair and flashing teeth. It is said none ever lives to the age of 35. That is probably an exaggeration.

Distinguished Gents
Recently when police officers raided boxing clubs and extracted 100 or more gangsters in a series of raids ringside fans were startled to see many quiet-looking, ordinary-looking gentlemen removed from their seats. The raiders made many arrests in the expensive ringside section where the gunmen sat side by side with society swells, politicians and city officials.

"Scarface Al" Capone, now called by the police the chief of the gangster element, despite a scar on his forehead and another on his cheek, is suave, almost distinguished in manner and appearance. He was, police claim, at one time a member of the notorious "Five Points" gang of New York and was imported to Chicago nine years ago to become a lieutenant of the then chieftains of the underworld, most of whom have long ago fallen victim to revolver, bomb or machine gun.

FINDS WOMAN IS SUICIDE; ENDS LIFE

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—A tragedy in which a man committed suicide when he found the woman with whom he was in love had killed herself was revealed in notes left in the gas-filled apartment where both died. The bodies of Mrs. Grace Rowan, wife of a stock actor now in Tampa, Fla., and L. J. McDaniel, chief pharmacist on the United States destroyer Kane, were found last night.

In a note addressed to the woman's husband, McDaniel told how he found her an apparent suicide, and concluded:

"I have made up my mind that if her love was so great for me that she did this rather than go back to you, then I, too, will go with her."

45 AUTOS SAVED IN FIRE

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 26.—An overheated oil burner was held responsible for a fire which started in the basement of the Martinsville Auto Company yesterday and caused damage estimated at $8,000.

Forty-five cars in the building were removed. The fire spread up the stairway through the partition wall to the attic of the building. The construction of the roof made the fire hard to reach and the firemen fought for nearly three hours to control the blaze. The damage is covered by insurance.

BUSINESS LIKE FARM METHODS ARE NECESSITY

BANKS TO FURNISH BOOKS

Value of Livestock, Feed, Supplies, Equipment And Other Property Shown By Annual Report

How much are your livestock, feed, supplies, equipment and other farm property worth? Do you have more or less than the usual quality of each on hand for this time of the year?

If you cannot answer these questions you do not have the information you need to size up the results of this year's farm business and plan most efficiently for the future. You can get the information in a few hours by taking a farm inventory. No other work you can do at this season is likely to pay you higher wages. The process is simple and the results so valuable that you are overlooking an opportunity if you do not give it a trial.

Seven of the most important benefits you receive from making an inventory are as follows:

1. It shows you your net worth or the total value of all property above the amount of your liabilities.
2. It shows your increase or decrease in net worth from year to year or, in other words, whether you are "getting ahead" or "going behind" and how much.

3. It shows you how your investment is divided among the different parts of your farm business and often opens your eyes to the fact that some parts are more or less important than you have had in mind and, therefore they need more or less attention than you have been giving them.

4. It prevents you from drawing false conclusions regarding your prosperity from the amount of cash you happen to have on hand. Many times a comparatively small amount of cash may discourage you when you are really doing well, but have your earnings tied up in some kind of property. At other times an unusually large amount of cash in the bank that has come as a result of decreasing the inventory of other property may encourage less careful spending than is wise.

5. It helps to establish better credit relations between you and the bank or other loan agency if you ever borrow money. Most bankers are more willing to lend money on favorable terms to the farmer who can furnish a clean-cut statement of his net worth than to the farmer who does not give this evidence of his business efficiency.

FARM RECORD BOOKS FREE
(Furnished by First National and Citizens Trust Co.)

The Standard form of the "Indiana Farm Record Book" is available to any farmer in Putnam County by calling at the First National Bank or The County Agent's office in the Court House. These books are furnished free through the courtesy of the bank.

The Record Book is a well bound book and insures a permanent record of the Farm's operations. In the front are detailed instructions for the entering of the records; then follows the receipts listing separately the receipts received from the sales of crops, livestock, dairy products, eggs, poultry and miscellaneous. The expenses are listed under the following heads, labor, feed and feed grinding, livestock purchased, auto, tractor and Truck, Building repairs, Fence repairs, permanent improvement and new equipment and miscellaneous. Pages are furnished for your inventory which is listed under the following heads: Land, buildings and fences, machinery, livestock, feed, seed and supplies. Following is a balance sheet for summarizing your year's business. This sheet when properly filled out at the end of the year's business gives you an insight into your farm operations so that you can understand condition and make changes wherever needed. This one page will contain very real valuable information than another record you will have on your farm. One page is devoted to talks for the calculating of the amount of hay and grain on hand of silage in the silo and legal weights per bushel. Pages are also supplied for the extending of accounts receivable, accounts payable and everyday record. In the back of the book is published, a standard by which you can compare your Farm business and pick out your strong and weak points.

GERMAN APPARATUS COULD SAVE SUBMARINE CREWS

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—(INS)—German submarine commanders declared today that, if the S-4 had been equipped with the same life-saving apparatus as German U-boats before and during the war the 40 persons in the vessel could have been saved.

German submarines are equipped with telephone buoys, which can be released by pressure from the bottom of the water. In case of an emergency the phone keeps the occupants of the submerged boat in constant touch with persons on the surface of the water.

Mother ships are equipped with special apparatus for raising sunken submarines.

A number of German submarines met with accident, but the members of the crews were always saved, thanks to the special equipment.

HOSPITAL HEAD HELD FOR DOUBLE MURDER

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—(INS)—Dr. Amante Rongetti, head of the Ashland Boulevard Hospital, was held to the grand jury by a coroner's jury here today on a double charge of murder in connection with the death of Miss Loretta J. Enders and her infant child, said to have been the result of an abortion performed by the physician.

The jury in its verdict stated that Dr. Rongetti had failed to provide for the life of the child when death was imminent after it had been born prematurely.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—(INS)—Death threats received by two pretty nurse witnesses whose testimony prompted police to hold Dr. Amante Rongetti, head of the Ashland Boulevard Hospital, on charges of murder, caused police to order them guarded here today.

The nurses at an inquest into the death of Loretta J. Enders, 19, testified that Dr. Rongetti had performed an abortion and had placed the living infant upon a bedpan, then taking it to a lavatory. The doctor allowed the newly born child to remain in the room for two days, the nurses stated, then ordering the infant to be burned to destroy evidence. Miss Enders died as a result of the operation.

The nurses, Lorraine Irwin and Hazel Reed, told police they had received ominous telephone calls warning them against testifying in disfavor of Dr. Rongetti who has been held in $50,000 bond pending action by the grand jury.

"RHEUMATISM KEPT ME IN CONSTANT MISERY", SHE SAYS

MRS. S. H. PARRETT

"Rheumatism has kept me in constant misery for years and the worst of it was that nothing would help me until I got Konjola, which has given me quick and lasting relief," said Mrs. S. H. Parrett, 1643 St. Marys Ave., Fort Wayne, Ind.

"I would have severe attacks of this dreadful ailment in my arms and legs. The joints would swell and become so sore and stiff that I could hardly move or raise my arm and it was difficult for me to go up or down the stairs.

"I started taking Konjola and today I am entirely free of all aches and pains, and I can't describe how good it feels to be able to have free use of my arms and legs again and not have to depend on someone else to help me around.

"My husband began taking it for his health troubles and soon felt much better. We both feel it is our duty to recommend Konjola to others who suffer."

Konjola is sold in Greencastle at Owl drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Little Mickey GROGAN
Serialized by MYRON BRYNIG

From The FBO Photoplay starring Frankie Darro

SYNOPSIS
The happy optimism of Mickey Grogan, waif of the streets, has reclaimed Jeffry Shore, young architect, from despondency which followed loss of his sweetheart and the threat of blindness. Jeffry, with Mickey's help, gets consideration from Alexander Cabel, Winifred's employer, of plans for a new factory but just when the future looks brightest, Al Nevers, pugilist admirer of Winifred, tries to force his way into her apartment and injures Jeffry in the scuffle which follows. Susan Dale, Mickey's little playmate of the slums, arrives with a policeman just as Nevers is ready to "finish" Jeffry and he is led away. An operation saves Jeffry's eyesight and Mickey and Susan race into the hospital yard to shout their happiness.

But Jeffry did not seem to be listening. At that moment he was kissing Winifred's hand and gazing up at her as though he could never see enough of her face. "My darling!" he whispered. "I knew that you would be beautiful, but I didn't think I should one day be looking at such—such perfection!" "Oh, Susie. You chase me an' I'll chase you," Mickey gurgled in a high falsetto. "Applesauce," and he dragged Susan after him out of the room.

In the hospital garden, they found Izzy Cohenstein anxiously awaiting the verdict. Izzy had on a pair of new trousers that were held up by both a belt and suspenders. Izzy explained that his father was now in the belt business. Mickey and Susan greeted him joyfully and were in the midst of telling him the glad tidings about Jeffry when disaster placed its hold upon the boy.

A hand gripped his shoulder and he was spun around to face the traitor officer. "Here you are, I've been looking for you! And I'd like to meet that smart aleck who said he was your father."

Mickey's terrified eyes stared up at the man. Before his eyes the vision of the dreaded "Institution" were already yawning for

After 62 years of waiting, Charles F. Hopkins, of Boonton, N. J., has finally received the Congressional Medal of Honor that he earned for conspicuous gallantry under fire during the Civil War. However, don't blame the Government for the delay. Mr. Hopkins could have had the medal, as

DAWN'S CALL HEARD MONDAY
Ship Thought To Be Close To Harbor
Grace Because of Plainness
Of Signals

ST. JOHN'S N. F. Dec. 28.—(INS)—Hope for the rescue of Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson and the Dawn's crew of three men was aroused today by the possibility that a Newfoundland telegraph operator may have intercepted a radio message from the missing plane on Monday afternoon.

An operator named Hillyard reported to Assistant Superintendent Stentford of the Anglo-American Cable station at Heart Content, N. F., near Harbor Grace, that he heard the following message:

"Where are we? Can you locate us?"

Harbor Grace was to have been the first stop on Mrs. Grayson's attempted Trans-Atlantic flight from Roosevelt Field, N. Y. to London and Denmark, but her plane was not seen after passing over Cape Cod last Friday evening.

The message, according to Hillyard was signed with a signal like HMU. Hillyard attached little importance to the incident and did not report it to assistant Superintendent Stentford until he learned that WMU was the Dawn's call.

In a report to the Western Union offices in St. John's Stentford said: "Hillyard told me the call he picked up was signed 'W'. The next letter was unreadable but sounded like 'P' or figure 6. The third letter was 'U'. It was repeated every three or four minutes for nearly half an hour.

The signals sounded very loud on the set and if they came from the Dawn, she must be pretty close."

It is believed here that the Dawn may have been forced down near the Newfoundland coast. The plane should have arrived here at daybreak on Saturday.

HARDWOOD
HITS

By LeRoy Bee

It took an extra day to recover from the Yuletide but we're back again after a three-day vacation.

From the looks of our schedules it appears that Putnam County basketball teams are also taking a vacation this week. So far as we see only Greencastle, Russellville and Reelsville play this week.

Greencastle has two of the toughest games on its schedule this week both of them to be played on foreign floors. Friday night they visit the lair of the Princeton Tigers and on Saturday night they oppose the Washington Hatchets. 'Twill be a nightmare of Tigers and Hatchets we honestly believe.

Russellville goes down to Reelsville Friday night to try out the Reelsville gym. After their surprise defeat of Roachdale last week it appears that the Lineback-lads will have little difficulty with the Washington township high school five.

DePauw also has some strenuous action this week. Tomorrow night they play at Chicago and on Friday night they meet Illinois Wesleyan on their home floor.

The Cloverdale independents are scheduled to play the Spencer Imp-O-Luck team on the latter's floor tonight. The Cloverdale boys are said to have won all of their games this year and are reputed to be a strong bunch.

Washington is all agog over the fact that they have the Victory Brick that hunk of crumbling clay which is held intact by successive coats of paint. Last year the Tiger Cubs wrested this much-sought trophy from the Hatchets on the local floor. Their ability to do it on the Washington floor is questioned by sport writers of the state.

We think we are going to celebrate the New Year by watching the Cubs trounce the Washingtonites Saturday night. Anyway we are going to celebrate whether they win it or not. So there!

We hope the Cubs don't work too hard in that Princeton game Friday night. What we want and what Greencastle wants is that Victory Brick. Let Princeton win a game. The Cubs

WE WANT THAT BRICK!

In our opinion Washington is not nearly so deadly as Princeton and we would much rather bet on the Cubs walloping the Hatchets than we would on them defeating the Tigers.

Those Tigers have been fed on raw meat since their defeat here several weeks ago and they will be dripping blood before they will submit to another trimming at the hands of the Greencastle boys. Anyway it will be a great game.

Both Princeton and Washington have good floors so the Cubs will not have half-pint size gyms to cramp their style.

The Cubs have "IT." And that is what it takes to win basketball games.

Frankfort downed Lebanon 53 to 27 last night in a one-sided tilt at Lebanon. The Casemen led 21 to 12 at the half.

Kokomo came to the attention of Indiana fans again last night by defeating Newcastle, 42 to 29, on the latter's floor. The Kats led 23 to 21 at the end of the first half.

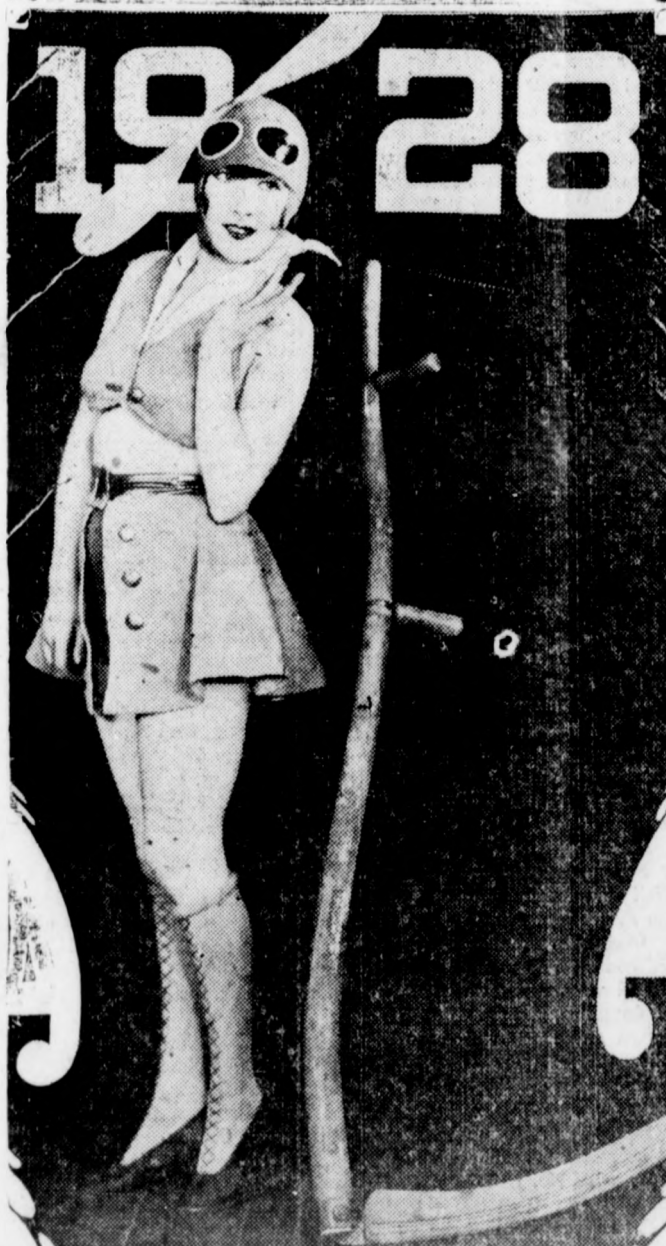

Mary Beth Plummer in the Bedford Mail says:

A new Hatchet has made his appearance in the Washington line-up. The boy's name is Inglehart, and seems to be a kind of Christmas present. In the Linton game, where the Hatchets came back after their Vincennes defeat with a 57-30 victory, this new Inglehart was the outstanding pointgetter, and came through with nine field goals. Big Bad Blagrove had only six.

Inglehart also looked good in the Vincennes game. At Franklin, in the epochal Christmas battle when Fridie took the Victory Brick, Inglehart again started at forward, and totalled seven points. His score ranked with the two highest Hatchets, being exceeded only by the veterans, Blagrove and Abbott.

Now the question is, where did the Hatchets get this Inglehart? And why have they kept him hidden so long? And have they still more like him to bring forth in a crisis?

NEW DIABETES
TREATMENT IS PLACED ON SALE

"ENTEROCAP ORALSULIN" IS TAKEN BY MOUTH INSTEAD OF HYPODERMIC INJECTIONS—MADE BY LAFAYETTE PHARMACAL CONCERN

"Enterocap Oralsulin," a special desiccation of the pancreas of young animals, said by its makers to be an effective and non-expensive diabetes therapy, has recently been placed on the market by a Lafayette Pharmacol concern. The new treatment is claimed to be as effective as insulin, and is taken in capsule form instead of by hypodermic injection, the main objection to the use of insulin.

"Enterocap Oralsulin," treatment is similar to insulin treatment in that it is used in conjunction with a more or less rigid diet depending on the severity of the case of diabetes.

Enclosed in a specially devised capsule which protects against gastric action in the stomach the capsule passes into the intestines, where it dissolves in the intestinal canal similar to the natural discharge of the pancreas. Here, it is claimed the pancreatic hormones are introduced into the blood stream, through natural absorption from the intestinal canal. Action of Oralsulin is said to be much slower than insulin which is introduced directly into the blood stream through hypodermic injection.

Local physicians with whom the new treatment has been discussed, say they have as yet not tried the treatment. Some even advanced the opinion that digestive disturbances might interfere with the length of time it would require for the Oralsulin to reach the intestinal canal. This of course would interfere with its regular absorption into the blood stream. Local physicians admitted, however, that as yet they knew very little of the new treatment, and were therefore not in a position to discuss the therapy.

FARMERS LOSE $25,000 EACH MONTH, MILK AGENT SAYS

Mr. Williams, of the Weber Milk Company of Indianapolis, is in the County endeavoring to establish milk routes for his company. He reported to the County Agent that he was finding it impossible because of the small number of herds that have been tested for tuberculosis. His company is prohibited by the city of Indianapolis from distributing dairy products in that city unless they come from tubercular tested cattle. He stated if milk was available the Weber Milk Company could build up a business here that would mean around $25,000 a month to Putnam County farmers.
